Subject: A Message from Congressman Jeff Miller

Dear Mr. Danilow,

Thank you very much for contacting my office. I appreciate you taking the time to let me know your opinions on an issue of such importance to you and your family.

As one of your elected officials, it is imperative that I know how the people that sent me to Congress feel on the issues. I strive to achieve a strong dialogue with my constituents and to represent the best interests of all those whom I represent.

In the 113th Congress, we are facing an increasing number of important issues. Rest assured that I will do everything I can to get our country back on sound financial footing without mortgaging our economic future.

Again, thank you for taking the time to keep me informed of your perspectives. I will carefully consider your views on this topic if it comes before the House of Representatives.

If you would like to receive further information on issues of importance to you, please log on to my website at <http://jeffmiller.house.gov/>. As always, please contact my office if you have any further concerns.

With warm personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Jeff Miller
Member of Congress
