

Dear Mr. Danilow,

Thank you for taking the time to write to me to express your concerns. I appreciate hearing your thoughts and I understand how important these issues are to you and many others. As a United States Senator, I will keep your ideas and views in mind while working to promote principles and policies to benefit Floridians and Americans alike.

Please feel free to visit my website at <http://rubio.senate.gov> where you can sign up to receive my e-newsletter and find useful information about services, issues, and news. You will also find instructions on how to contact me and my office. As your Senator, I am committed to hearing your concerns and opinions, and I welcome any views or input you wish to share with me in the future.

Sincerely,

Marco Rubio
United States Senator
