

Dear Mr. Danilow:

Thank you for writing me about the state of affairs in Washington.

It is important for me to know how Floridians feel about the workings of their Federal government. I want to assure you that I am committed to upholding the hallmarks of our democracy: free enterprise, individual liberty, personal responsibility, and transparency in government.

And, while a Senator is only one voice among a hundred, I will continue to do my part to bring a measure of civility and common sense to our nation's capital.

As legislation is considered in the Senate, I will share your concerns with my colleagues. Please do not hesitate to contact me in the future.

Sincerely,
Bill Nelson
