Dear Mr. Danilow:

Thank you for contacting me about the situation in Iraq and Syria.

In September, the U.S. and its allies began conducting air strikes against ISIS in Syria. The President, as Commander-in-Chief, decided that such military action was necessary.

Because this effort may take years, I believe Congress needs to weigh in to authorize the continued use of such force. That's why I filed legislation to give the President the clear authority he needs to continue striking ISIS not just in Iraq and Syria but anywhere they may try to hide.

This group is vicious, diabolical and must be stopped. And as a world leader the U.S. had to be involved in putting together a coalition to stop them.

As always, I appreciate hearing from you. Please don't hesitate to contact me again on this or any other issue.

Sincerely,
Bill Nelson
